

Nominations for Church Office

The 2010 Nominating Committee of First Presbyterian Church has begun the very important work of selecting members of our congregation to serve as elders, deacons, the 2011 nominating committee and the senior pastor nominating committee (PNC).

All nominees for church office and nominating committees must be active members for at least one year prior to election, which occurs in October, with all terms beginning in January. Terms of office are three years for elders and deacons, and one year for the church nominating committee. Consecutive terms are generally not permitted, but officers are eligible for re-election one year after completion of a term. Officer training is provided between October and December. A summary of the training and job descriptions for elders and deacons are posted outside the church office and on the First Presbyterian web site: <http://firstpresbyterian.org/content/church-officer-nominations>, along with a web-based version of this form.

Please submit your nomination to the Nominating Committee's box in the church office by April 15, or contact one of the committee members listed below.
