COLLECT FOR CHRISTMAS EVE (offered in unison)

Creator God, who in the fullness of time came to us in this little Child whose birth has become our birth, whose life is our life: lead us from whatever darkness may cloud our hearts to a brighter vision of life illumined by Him, the Light of the World. With the faithful everywhere, let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing which has come to pass. Let us go now to Bethlehem, and kneel there with poor shepherds, worshiping the Child in the manger. Let us go now to Bethlehem and with the great and wise ones, the Magi, present to Him the gifts of our lives. Let us go now to Bethlehem and with the angel host sing our own songs of praise to the Child who is our King, the King of Love. Amen.

Catalonian Carol

Arr. Mack Wilberg

On December twentyfive, sing fum, fum, fum! He is born the Holy Child, the little babe, the infant mild. He is born the Virgin birth and He shall be the joy of earth, sing fum, fum, fum! Little birds fly from the sky, sing fum, fum, fum! Little creatures great and small, come to the stable one and all, come and form a tiny nest, all for the Holy Child to rest, sing fum, fum, fum! Little stars that shine above, sing fum, fum, fum! See the infant as He sleeps, He brings to all goodwill and peace. O let the night shine lightly, with a flame burn clear and brightly, fum, fum fum!

OFFERING OF GIFTS

ANTHEM Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day John Gardner
Tomorrow shall be my dancing day; I would my true love did so chance to see the legend of my play, to call my true love to my dance: Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love; this have I done for my true love. Then was I born of a virgin pure, of her I took fleshly substance; thus was I knit to man's nature, to call my true love to my dance: Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love; this have I done for my true love. In a manger laid and wrapped I was, so very poor this was my chance, betwixt an ox and a silly poor ass, to call my true love to my dance: Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love; this have I done for my true love. Then afterwards baptized I was; the Holy Ghost on me did glance, my Father's voice heard from above, to call my true love to my dance: Sing O my love, O my love, my love, my love, this have I done for my true love.

THE SERVICE OF LIGHTS

At the candle lighting, the ushers will light the candle of the first person in each pew at the center aisle. Each person in turn will light the candle of the next worshiper. Everyone is requested to remain seated at the close of the service until each row is released by an usher.

The people singing

Silent night! Holy night!
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin mother and Child.
Holy infant so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night! Holy night!
Shepherds quake at the sight;
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing alleluia:
Christ the Savior is born! Christ the Savior is born.

Silent night! Holy night!
Son of God, love's pure light.
Radiant beams from thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

The Service of Lessons and Carols

is based on the service which has been a tradition at the chapel of King's College, Cambridge, England since 1918, but which actually goes back as far as 1880 to the Cathedral of Truro in Cornwall. The service tells the story of our salvation in Christ, beginning with the fall of humanity in the Garden of Eden, the prophecy of the Messiah by Isaiah, the birth of Jesus, and the visits to the manger by the shepherds and Magi, who signify the most humble and exalted of humankind. These readings from scripture are interspersed with carols sung by the congregation and anthems sung by the choir. As the procession of readers and the candles move toward the front of the sanctuary, we remember the unfolding of the Word in the long story of God's movement through history. At the conclusion of the service, as the candles of the faithful are lit, we remember that Christ is our Light and that we are to carry that Light into the darkness.
