GATHERING

Welcome and Centering

Call to Worship

One: God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets.

All: Now, God has spoken to us through Jesus, whom God appointed to be heir of all things.

One: Jesus is the reflection of God's glory, the exact imprint of God's very being.

All: Praise to the Word of God, who sustains all things!

One: Not all lived to witness Jesus' hope, but we celebrate all who carried God's covenant of love across generations to this very day.

All: Eternal God, gather us in with all who came before us to worship you.

PROCLAMATION

Scripture Reading

Hebrews 11:1-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible...

... as many as the starts of heaven and as innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better homeland, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Meditation

RESPONDING

The Sacrament of Communion

Invitation to the Table

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving and Necrology

When prompted, you are invited to lift up the name of anyone you've lost in the past year out loud.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.

Amen.

Welcome and Life in the Church

*Call to Worship

We remember, O God...

The tender touch of loved ones, the healing words of comforters, the loyalty of friends, the kindness of strangers, the joy of children, the sacrifice of parents.

We remember, O God...

The love of Jesus, the blessing of his Spirit, His love shown forth in the lives of those we have loved — young and old, dead and living, strange and familiar, brilliant and ordinary.

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the Lord. Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses...

Let us worship God with joy!

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

If we have placed our hope in the things we can see and touch, if we have grieved for the loss of dear ones without hope or faith in your saving love, and if we have put the saints on pious pedestals yet deny our own capacity to grow in the knowledge and love of God, Lord, have mercy upon us....

Silent Prayer

*Congregational Response

ABERYSTWYTH

Plenteous grace with thee is found,
grace to cover all my sin.

Let the healing streams abound;
make and keep me pure within.

Thou of life the fountain art;
freely let me take of thee.

Spring thou up within my heart.

Rise to all eternity.

In bright mansions above, Lord I want to live up yonder

In bright mansions above.

My father's gone to glory; I want to go there too.

Lord, I want to live up yonder in bright mansions above.

My mother's gone to glory; I want to go there too.
Lord, I want to live up yonder in bright mansions above.
In bright mansions above, Lord I want to live up yonder
In bright mansions above.

Prayer of Dedication

The Sacrament of Communion and Commemoration of the Faithful

Words of Institution

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise. . . . (prayers continue)

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels, and with that great multitude no one can count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages all the ordinary saints who have finished their race and sing forever to the glory of your name...

Together we pray: Eternal Light, Immortal Love, we bless your name for these and all your servants who have kept the faith and finished the race. Help us abide in their fellowship and follow their example of faithfulness, that, with them, we may share the feast that Christ has prepared. This we pray in the name of our risen Lord, who taught us to pray together, saying:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Communion of the People

Communion will be served in this way: The two outside stations have cups of juice and pre-cut bread. The inner stations have bread that the clergy will offer you to dip in the cup. In the center are gluten-free wafers.

Prayer after Communion

Lord Jesus, thank you for uniting us with one another and feeding us in this meal. You call us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, to be faithful through the years, and to bring hope to a broken world. Help us each day to be your people and to live lives of uncommon faith and love, trusting wholly in you. We ask it through our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Charge and Benediction

One: Many grains were gathered together to make this bread,

All: many grapes were mixed to make this wine.

One: So, we who are many,

All: and come from many places, are one in Christ.

One: May the peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us greet one another with signs of peace as we depart this place, rejoicing.

SUPPORT FOR THE GRIEVING

At First Pres, there is a broken heart in every pew – but particularly today.

- Pastoral care is available to you.
- Stephen Ministers are ready to walk with you.
- In our Compassion and Care Library, we offer a wealth of grief resources for your use.
- Grief Conversations support group meets every 3rd Monday at Noon on Zoom.
- Plan to attend our Longest Night Service, on Wednesday, December 18, at 7:00 p.m., in Monteith Hall, that recognizes the Winter Solstice and the increasing darkness that comes at this time of year, both literally and figuratively. At this comforting service, special prayers and communion are offered.

For more information on any of these resources, contact Rev. Melissa Anne Rogers, mrogers@fpca2.org.
