Making God's Love Visible

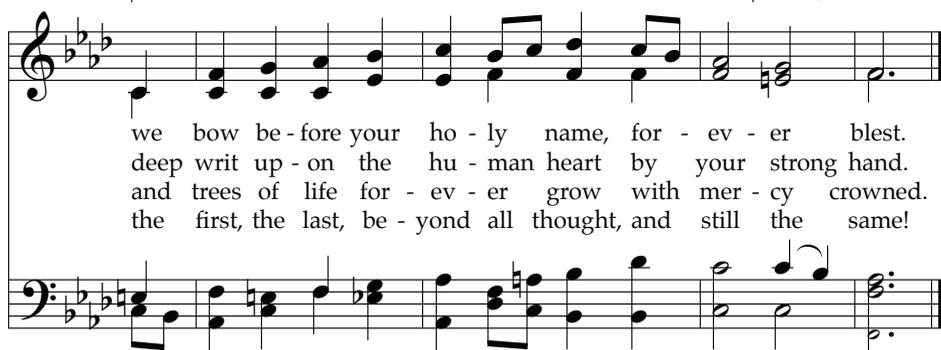

1 The God of A-braham praise, who reigns en-throned a - bove,
 2 Your spir - it still flows free, high surg - ing where it will.
 3 Your good - ly land we seek, with peace and plen - ty blest,
 4 You have e - ter - nal life im - plant - ed in the soul;

the An - cient of E - ter - nal Days, the God of love!
 In proph-et's word you spoke of old and you speak still.
 a land of sa - cred lib - er - ty and Sab - bath rest.
 your love shall be our strength and stay, while a - ges roll.

The Lord, the great I AM, by earth and heaven con-fessed,
 Es - tab-lished is your law, and change-less it shall stand,
 There milk and hon - ey flow, and oil and wine a - bound,
 We praise you, liv - ing God! We praise your ho - ly name:

we bow be - fore your ho - ly name, for - ev - er blest.
 deep writ up - on the hu - man heart by your strong hand.
 and trees of life for - ev - er grow with mer - cy crowned.
 the first, the last, be - yond all thought, and still the same!

Please know that, in recording all the parts of this liturgy — spoken, sung and played — we have carefully observed responsible norms of social distancing.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

The Call to Worship is a reminder to us that God is not distant or sleeping. God is not playing hard to get, and we are not on God's last nerve. The Divine Presence, the Creator, the Sovereign over all the earth, calls us to gather. In coming together, we meet the Triune God. The Lord promises to be there with us.

Hear those words not just as a welcome and a signal that the service is underway. Hear them as a reminder of the promise that God is near to God's people and always will be. The Three-in-One, the One-in-Three is in the room, whatever room we are in!

WELCOME AND LIFE IN THE CHURCH

OPENING VOLUNTARY

The God of Abraham Praise

Isadore Freed

As the voluntary begins, let the time and the music help to center you for worship.

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: When we asked who had heard our cries and understood our affliction,

All: God said, "I am who I am – I know your suffering, and I will lead you onward."

One: When we asked who could bear our griefs and carry our sorrows,

All: Jesus said, "The Son of Man will know death, but will rise to life again."

One: When we wondered how to pray from the midst of our struggles,

All: The Spirit interceded for us with sighs too deep for words.

One: O God – You have known us, heard us, healed us and set us free.

All: Now our journey beckons us onward.

Teach us who we are. Show us where we are going.

And put a song of praise on our lips while we are getting there.

LEONI

This hymn is found on the preceeding page of this bulletin.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, though most of us have lived most of our lives in safety and comfort,

still we know the reality of bondage:

we have allowed our desire for comfort to entrap us in materialism;
we have hedged our disagreements with anger that hints at violence;
we have caged our days with busyness that crowds out compassion.

Too seldom we have let our choices be honed by the cries of those around us afflicted by discrimination, poverty, and despair.

Too often we have chosen to serve our own needs over the needs of the common good.

Most of all, we have indentured ourselves to the certainty that we cannot change these things about our world.

As we confess our captivity to all that comes between our choices and Your will,

free us from the skepticism with which we view the prospect of true freedom –

RESPONDING AND SEALING

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Benjamin and Allison Tatum present their son, Griffin Russell Ryan Tatum, born November 3, 2019, for baptism.

Affirmation of Faith The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water and Baptism

The new paraments on the pulpit, lectern, and communion table were made by Alberta Irwin. Berta is a quilter from Atlanta, Georgia, and a friend of Dave VanderMeer.

The Prayer for Illumination turns our attention to God to ask that we hear God’s word in order to better know God’s will for our lives.

Today’s reader is Tara Shantz.

Griffin Russell Ryan Tatum was baptized on the Circle Terrace at First Presbyterian on Saturday, August 29, 2020, in the company of his close family, including three sets of grandparents. Virginia Rezmierski, Griffin's great-grandmother, served as the representative of the Session and the First Presbyterian congregation. Baptism is ordinarily conducted within a worship service, but a special ruling by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) permits the sacrament to be recorded in small gatherings that can then be included digitally in a worship service.

OFFERING OF TITHES AND GIFTS

Prayer of Dedication

Offertory

Moses

Ken Medema

Old Moses, 'way back there in the wilderness, saw some smoke, came to the bush, and the bush was burnin'.

God said, "Take off your shoes, Moses, you're on holy ground.

Moses, I've chosen you to be my man,

Moses, 'way down in Egypt's land.

Moses, I've chosen you to work for me,

Moses, I've chosen you to set my people free!"

"Not me, Lord!

Don't you know I can't talk so good;

I stutter all the time.

Do you know my brother, Aaron?

He can sing like an angel,

Talk like a preacher.

Not me, Lord!

I can't talk so good.

And another thing,

"How will they know that I've been here with you?

How will they know what you've sent me to do?

Don't you know that in Egypt, they want little Moses' head?

Don't you know that in Egypt, they want little Moses dead?

Don't you know they'll never hear a single word I'll say!

Maybe you'd get your dirty work done another way!

Not me, Lord!"

“What’s that in your hand, Moses?”

“Throw it down, Moses.”

“Do you mean, like, on the ground?”

“Yes, I said, throw it down, Moses.”

“Lord, don’t take my rod away from me,
Don’t you know it’s my only security?
Don’t you know when you live here all alone,
A man’s gotta have something he can call his own;
Not me, Lord!”

“Throw it down, Moses.”

“But, Lord, I ...”

“Throw it down, Moses.”

“But ...”

“Throw it down, Moses.”

Moses throw the rod on the ground
And the rod became a hissing snake!

Well, Moses started runnin’.

Well, maybe you’d run.

You’d run.

Well, maybe I’d run.

I’d run.

He was a-runnin’ from a hot rod!

Runnin’ from a hissing snake!

Runnin’ scared of what God’s gonna do!

Runnin’ scared He’ll get a hold of you!

And the Lord said,

“Stop, Pick it up, Moses, by the tail!”

“Lord, you have not lived here very long!

Lord, you’ve got the whole thing wrong!

Don’t you know that you never pick up a hissing snake by his ...”

“Pick it up, Moses!”

Oh, God, it’s a rod again, it’s a rod again, it’s a rod again!

“Do you know what it means, Moses?

Do you know what I’m trying to say, Moses?

The rod of Moses became the rod of God!

With the rod of God, strike the rock and the water will come;

With the rod of God, part the waters of the sea;

With the rod of God, you can strike old Pharaoh dead;

With the rod of God, you can set the people free.”

What do you hold in your hand today?

To what or to whom are you bound?

Are you willing to give it to God right now?

Give it up, Give it up, let it go, let it go,

Throw it down.

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below;

Praise God above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Use these offertory moments to savor your gratitude for the abundance of God’s love — and to consider your own response in loving service. As you consider making your offering, remember that the church’s regular expenses continue in these difficult times. And the community around us needs your financial support: your faithful giving is like the breath of life to mission programs we love, neighbors in need, members who are hurting.

Though circumstances prevent us from passing an offering plate, they also require that we not take a pass on doing what we can to keep our ministries healthy during this crisis. Thank you for your faithful generosity!

Ways to give: online on the First Pres homepage ... via “Text-to-Give” (855-904-1523) ... use our Give+ app ... put a check in the mail ... or scan the QR code below. (Call Finance Manager Anna Miller if you need assistance.)

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

A word about our fall theme, “Getting There Together” —

This fall begins a new season of our life together. In our church we’re on our way to meet a new leader, to begin a new chapter of ministry, to discover new ways of rising to the challenges of a protracted pandemic. In our society we’re on our way through a season of polarization in politics and policy, vulnerability in public health, soul-searching and accountability for our values of justice, equity, liberty. During these coming weeks we’ll turn for guidance to the book of Exodus — the story of the long journey of the people Israel as God responds to their anguish, leads them out of bondage, and accompanies them through crises of identity and faith and communal life to a new threshold. And we’ll be leaning on the company of Jesus, particularly in the latter chapters of the gospel of Matthew. Like us, the exodus people are on their way toward life in a promising future; but the process of getting there will help them, and us, learn how to live when they get where they hope they’re going.

Today’s cover art, Sanctuary: Mishkan, is from Jewish fiber artist Laurie Wohl of New York City.

Laurie is internationally known for her unique Unweavings©, liturgical projects, and interfaith message.

The message across the top of this piece is from the Talmud:

Know before whom you stand
Da Lifnay mi atah omayd

The message around and within the circle is from Psalm 19:15:

May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in your sight, Adonai,
my rock and my redeemer
Yihyu lerasown ‘imre fi vhiyiyon libbi lifanecha Adonai suri v’goali

The message across the bottom is from Exodus 25:8:

Let them build me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them
V’asu li miqdash v’sacanti btokam

The circle signifies wholeness and the royal colors are suggested by verses in Exodus.

Special music today is written and performed by Ken Medema, a renowned singer-songwriter from Grand Rapids. For four decades, Ken has inspired people through storytelling and music. Though almost blind from birth, he sees and hears with heart and mind. While his eyesight is limited to sensing dark from light and outlines of large objects, Ken’s ability to capture spirit in word and song is unparalleled. “As a kid I was not widely accepted,” he says, “and I spent a lot of time by myself. Because I have lived with some degree of being different all my life, I have some sympathy for people who have been disenfranchised, whether they have been disabled or politically oppressed or whatever.”

A prayer team is available to those who would like prayer either before or after this service.

On Sundays at 9:00 a.m. and at noon you may enter the prayer room by clicking on this link —

<https://firstpresbyterian.org/event/prayer-team>. Prayer team volunteers are Katie Parker and Michele Derr (9:00) and Cyndy Colton (noon). “Prayer admits and voices dependence upon the only One who is the ultimate source of help and strength.” — Stephen Olford

Join Rev. Rogers for a virtual Coffee Hour Sunday immediately following the Closing Voluntary. For the first 20–30 minutes, we have group conversation, and then we split into small groups. Around 11:15, Coffee Hour conversations end. If you have questions, please contact Rev. Rogers. Special guests today at Coffee Hour are some of our Deacons and Stephen Ministers. Today’s conversation prompt: A new theme for worship this fall begins today: Getting There Together. Where do you think we’re going, as a church? Chancel flowers are given in loving memory of Dr. Julian Hoff by his wife Diane and their family; in loving memory of Taylor Elizabeth-Blair Calhoun by her family and friends; and in honor of Helen Emmons on her 100th birthday.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Planning Our Future Together! An essential part of calling a new Lead Pastor is seeking input from the congregation. A survey has been sent to members and friends of FPC. This represents the biggest opportunity you will have for input to the report of the Self Study Group that will, in turn, shape the work of the Pastor Nominating Committee – so your responses are very important in helping to determine the future of our church. The survey will close on September 28.

Join us online the first Tuesday of each month for "Grief Conversations." The next meeting is October 6, at 11:00 a.m. We are all in grief over something — the loss of a loved one, the loss of expectations, the loss of life as we knew it to be, the loss of our relationships and close connections, the loss of our physical strength and "invincibility" that we once seemingly enjoyed. Once a month, for an hour, we gather to share a bit more about our individual losses, and ponder what we can learn of loss, life, love, and the language of letting go and moving forward in life. Contact Rev. Rogers (mrogers@firstpresbyterian.org) for the link (and more information) to join our conversation as we compassionately care for one another.

Strengthening Ourselves & Strengthening Others — Virtual Conversations

Leaders Beth Steward, Jane Dutton, and Diane Hockett will focus on personally connecting people who attend the discussion and encouraging each person's voice to be heard.

Engage your Body, Mind, and Spirit! Join Rob Meyer-Kukan, a Licensed Sound Therapist, this Tuesday, September 15, for a dedicated time to center, relax, and restore. Our time together may include guided meditation, breath work, mindful movement, and sound therapy. Come and explore a new way of connecting your spirituality to your everyday life. Themes for each experience will support the themes being explored in worship, from the book of Exodus, as well as themes appropriate for the season. Consider this experience a mini-retreat to center yourself through gentle activities, focused meditation on poetry and scripture, and the soothing tones of singing bowls, gongs, and other therapeutic instruments. There will be additional sessions will take on Tuesday, October 20, and Tuesday, November 17, at 7:00 p.m. The sessions may be accessed by way of the First Presbyterian Church Facebook Page and YouTube channel. These events are co-sponsored by FPC Adult Education and Worship Committees. All are welcome! For more information, contact Dave VanderMeer (dvandermeer@firstpresbyterian.org).

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

Gimme Shelter 2020

Alpha House, one of our mission partners, supports homeless families by providing temporary shelter, food, and support services in a caring atmosphere of dignity and safety. Gimme Shelter, their one annual fundraising event is more important than ever! As the chaos of 2020 continues, every dollar is especially precious. Individual donors have continued to be generous during the pandemic, but Alpha House has seen a noticeable decline from their usual corporate donors. At this point, there is considerable uncertainty around any funding source for the coming year.

How can you help? Mark your calendar for Friday, September 25, and purchase a $35 dinner ticket! This year the event will be hosted outdoors on the grounds of Alpha House, 4290 Jackson Road, 4:00–7:00 p.m. A $35 ticket includes dinner from 1 of 3 food trucks — “Mr. Pit Master BBQ”; “Nachos Average Tostado”; “WOOD Fired Up Pizza” — plus dessert from “Hello Ice Cream.” Donors will have the option of driving up for their meal or having their meal delivered if they live in 48103 or 48104 zip codes. More information about the event and how to order a meal may be found at <https://www.alphahouse-ihn.org/2018gimmeshelter>. To volunteer to work at this event, contact Mark Heffner, Volunteer Coordinator (mheffner@alphahouse-ihn.org; (734) 249-9227).

Financial contributions and food donations throughout the month of September are received to support Food Gatherers. Food Gatherers’ mission is to alleviate hunger and eliminate its causes in our community. They distribute 6.6 million pounds of food annually through 170 partners and programs serving Washtenaw County. Most needed food items include low sodium soups, canned meats, canned vegetables, canned or packaged pasta, rice, cereal, oatmeal, granola bars, nut butters and jelly in plastic jars, baby food and formula in plastic containers, and Ensure® and other nutritional supplement drinks. Most needed personal items include diapers, toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, shampoo, and disposable razors. Food and personal care items will be accepted throughout the month of September. Collection bins are provided outside at the Memorial Garden entrance to the church Mondays through Thursdays, 9:00 to 3:00.

Donations will also be received during today’s Sunday Funday drive-through, 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Financial donations may be mailed to the church or made online (www.firstpresbyterian.org/donate). Please note the purpose of your check on the memo line.
