

Cantor sings from Psalm 103:

It is God who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion.

The Lord is compassion and love,
slow to anger and rich in mercy.
God does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults.

As a Father has compassion for his children,
the Lord has pity on those who fear him;
for God knows of what we are made,
God remembers that we are dust.

*You are invited to remain after the service as long as you desire for continued personal meditation and prayer.
Please leave in silence.*

ASH WEDNESDAY Ecumenical Taizé Worship

March 6, 2019 7:30 p.m.

First Presbyterian Church

Ann Arbor

Welcome in the name of Christ to this twenty-fifth annual meditative worship to begin our Lenten journey. The service is inspired by the Ecumenical Community of Taizé, France, which strives to be a 'parable of reconciliation and community' for the world by bringing people from various Christian traditions together through work, worship and prayer.

Be reconciled all you who enter here:

Men and women,

neighbors and strangers,

believers and those who cannot believe,

Christians and followers of other faiths.

We hope that by our joining together as people from various churches and denominations for this Lenten worship, this spirit of reconciliation will be experienced and spread throughout our city and world. Tonight we are called to remember our fragile nature, that we are born and that our bodies die, and that God is infinite and forever. As we have come together from different churches and traditions to join in the body of Christ, let us remember that we come together surrounded and welcomed by the Spirit.

What will happen during tonight's service

The forty days of Lent are a reminder and a celebration of God's love and forgiveness. Assured of God's forgiveness, we examine our lives, confess our sins, and rejoice in God's grace. The movement of the service is meant to foster this experience. We begin in a quiet mood of reflection, self-examination and confession as we move toward coming down the aisle of the church for the imposition of ashes. Then we enter a time of silence to ponder our relationship with God or simply to rest in God's Presence.

As we come out of the silence, the mood gradually changes. We hear scriptures and prayer that move us to a joyous "Sanctus" and into celebrating Holy Communion. We come down the aisle a second time to participate in the Bread and the Cup, signs and symbols of God's gracious acceptance. We leave, blessing the Lord for such a wondrous salvation.

We pray that during this simple service of scripture, prayer, silence, meditative singing of Taizé music, imposition of ashes and Holy Communion, you will become more aware of the Presence of the Living God in your life.

About Taizé Music

from Praying Together in Word and Song

"We have endeavored to make our prayer meditative, popular, accessible to all generations and as universal as possible... Sung prayer remains one of the strongest expressions of our search for God. Simple words, sung over and over, underscore the meditative quality of prayer; they express a basic truth which the mind quickly grasps and, as they are repeated, gradually penetrate the heart. In this way they lead to silence and resting in the Presence of God."

Those parts of the service of worship in which the congregation participates in word or song are noted in bold type.

The order for each song is:

1. Instruments play song;
2. Soloist sings song;
3. Congregation sings song several times.

Please turn off all cell phones.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

Bread and Cup

The bread is broken and the grape juice poured in silence, so you will want to watch this aspect of Holy Communion. Perhaps the words from your own tradition will come to mind. Please come down the center aisle and return by the side aisles as you did for the imposition of ashes. As you receive the wafer and dip it in the cup, please take time to ponder the meaning of this sacrament for you. Gluten-free wafers are located in the center cup on each wafer tray. If you are unable to come forward, you will be served where you are seated.
